Notes:

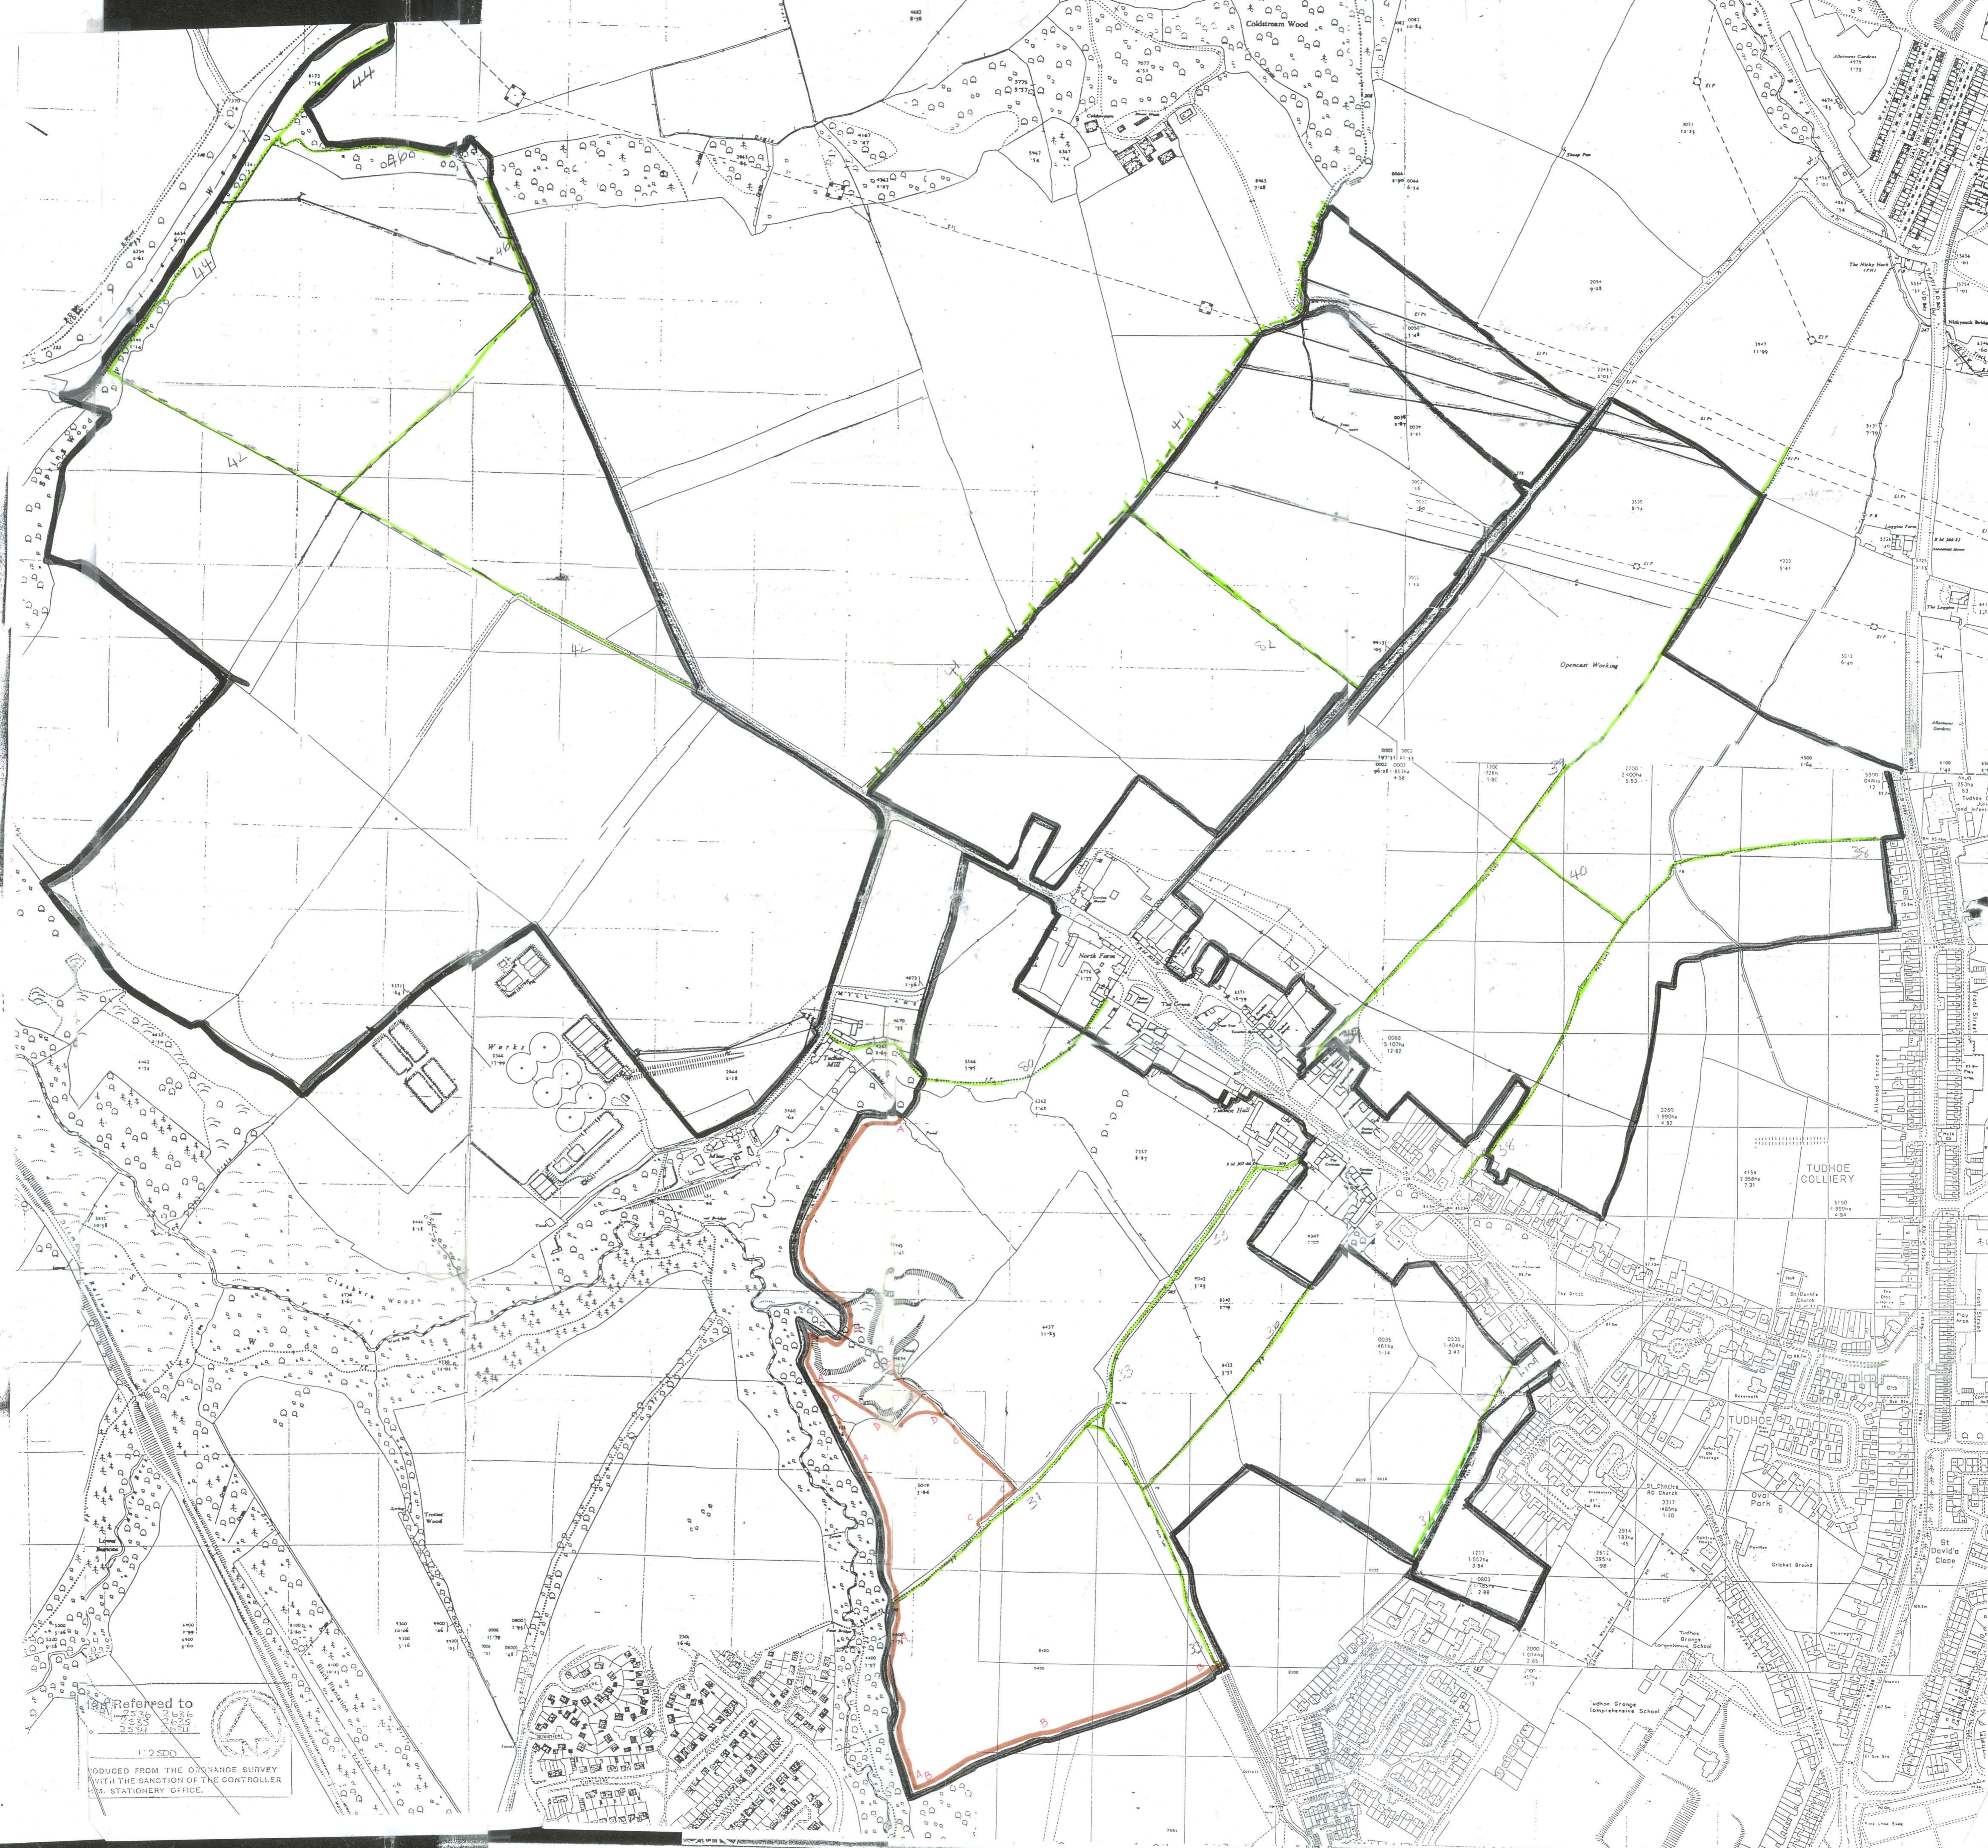

I admit that the ways described below and shown on the accompanying map deposited by me with Durham County Council on the date set out below and coloured green have been dedicated as highways: insofar as they cross the farm now owned by me and my son Mark William Anderson known as Tudhoe Hall Farm

I deny that any of the ways described below and shown on the accompanying map deposited by me with Durham County Council on the date set out below and coloured brown have been dedicated as highways:

1. Footpath A which runs from the woods at Tudhoe Mill, along the East edge of the wood until reaching the North West corner of field 6400.
2. Footpath B which runs from the South west corner of field 6400 (where footpath A ends) unto the East corner of field 6400.
3. Footpath C which runs from the centre of the North west border of field 6400 in a North East direction to the pond at the west corner of field 6437.
4. Footpath D which runs from the border of field 6437 at the centre of footpath C, in a North West direction to footpath A.
