Please make sure you send us the supporting evidence we have asked for above. If you cannot send this to us, we will need a letter from a friend or family member to say why you want us to pay your landlord.

To help us make a decision you must also answer the questions in this section:

QUESTION	ANSWER
If we send you the Local Housing Allowance what would stop you paying the rent to your landlord?
How long have you been unable to look after your money?
Does anyone help you look after your money? If yes, tell us who helps you and how?
How do you pay other household bills, such as gas/electric, phone and water?

We may decide that the Local Housing Allowance should be paid to you, the customer. You must therefore fill in the following section with details of the bank/building society account you would like us to make these payments to.

If you do not have an account we will make payments to you by cheque.

Note: Local Housing Allowance can not be paid into Post Office accounts.
