

Metal Horse Step-through Gate

Specifications:

- Step should be clad in timber (or other non-clangy material such as rubber) and at least 1525 mm wide and have rounded edges
- Where possible a 1100 mm gap should be provided to one side of the gate for pedestrians
- There should be sufficient manoeuvring space at the gate and it should be set back 4 m from any carriageway (used by motor vehicles)