

Albert Scatcherd
Camp Punishment

The punishment was that anybody caught stealing from a prisoner, what they used to do get hold of them and dump them down the latrine and just drag them in from one end to the other and then let them out the other end where they were stuck there. That was the punishment for it.